

University Central Library
Mohanlal Sukhadia University
UDAIPUR 313001

REPORT

A One day users awareness programme on e-resources was organized at University Central Library, Mohanlal Sukhadia University, Udaipur on 9th May, 2008, Dr U K Agarwal of the library welcomed the gathering, guests and dignitaries. The programme was inaugurated by the Dean, Post Graduate Studies of the University Prof S C Ameta, in his inaugural address emphasized to create habits for more & more utilization of the electronic resources.

Prof. D K Bhatt, Officer in-charge of the library presided over the function and addressed to utilize the facilities created in university library system so that the quality of the research may be uplifted.

Prof Madhusudan Sharma, Dean College of Science advised to nominate prefects among the research scholars in subject to help and train the fresh researchers for the use of the e-resources.

Prof K Venugopalan, Director, Computer Centre while delivering his key note address intimated about the available infra structure, network computerization in MLSU and future plans.

Mr Rajesh K Chandrakar from Inlibnet Centre intimated about the various facilities and services provided by the Inlibnet to the Universities and forthcoming services and how they are helpful in writing papers and in research.

The participating publishers of UGC Infonet digital library consortium such as Informatics, Globe Publications Pvt. Ltd, GIST, Springer India Pvt. Ltd, Elsevier India, Emerald Group Publishing Limited had presented their e-resouces subscribed under the consortium.

Feedback form was filled up by the participants and handed over to Mr. Rajesh Chandrakar.

One hour was provided to the participants for on Hand Practice for accessing E-resources

Total 200 faculties, research scholars, professionals attended the programme.

Mr T S Bohara , Professional Assistant has managed the Publisher's schedule, organized the presentation program under the guidance of Mr Premchand and extended vote of thanks

All the library staff was involved in organizing the program