R. K. Talreja

R. K. Talreja College

The then Seth Parsram Parumal, a visionary philanthropist established Seva Sadan, an educational family trust in the year 1950 to provide educational facilities to Sindhi migrants from Pakistan at the time of partition.

The trust started New Era School in the year 1950 & constructed the first cement concrete building of Ulhasnagar in 1957. In the year 1961, the trust started Ulhasnagar Girls College, a first college in the entire Konkan region, which was renamed as R. K. Talreja College in the year 1967. Seva Sadan's college of Education was started in the year 1964.

A full-fledged library brimming with books awaits the bookworms and opens a new world of information and enlightenment. Its spacious serene and cosy interiors are a blessing to the students, who have the constraints of space at their homes. Separate reading rooms for girls and boys are maintained. Library is open from 7:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m. on all working days during the exam period.
