About Himachal Pradesh University

The Himachal Pradesh University was founded on July 22, 1970. It is located at Summer Hill which is at a distance of 5 kms from the main town, Shimla. The University is nestled amidst tall and lush green trees of deodars, oaks, pines and rhododendrons. The location of the University presents a panoramic natural view among the woods, settled around Summer Hill. The camps where one half bathes in the fresh sun towards the east and another half in the grandeur of unique sunset on the West. Overlooking snow peaked majestic mountain ranges add to the lofty ideals and vision of the university. Its salubrious climate and calmness presents congenial atmosphere to pursue higher studies. The University campus occupies an area of 200 acres and has been designed to possess a distinctive architectural style. Himachal Pradesh University is the only multi-faculty and affiliating University in the state. It firmly believes in what India's first Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru said in his oft. Cited convocation address at the University of Allahabad, "A University stands for humanism, for tolerance, for region, for progress, for the adventure of ideas and for the search for truth. It stands for the onward march of the human race towards even higher.

About Indian Institute of Advanced Study (IIAS)

The Indian Institute of Advanced Study came into being on the 6 October 1964, as an autonomous society, fully financed by the Government of India, under the Ministry of Education. As a residential centre for research, it encourages creative thinking in areas of deep human significance.

The building that houses the institute was originally built as a home for Lord Dufferin, Viceroy of India from 1884–1888 and was called the Viceregal

Lodge. It housed all the subsequent viceroys and governors general of India. After independence, the Lodge and its vast hinterland passed into the hands of the President of India, and was renamed Rashtrapati Nivas. The institute was formally inaugurated by the then President of India Prof. S. Radhakrishnan on 20th October 1965.

As the nation's premier institution, the Institute provides facilities for advanced consultations and collaboration on aspects of the Human Condition. It has an extensive library collection and offers modern communication and documentation facilities.

How to Reach Shimla

Shimla is well connected to the rest of India by Air, Rail and Road transport.

By Air: Jubbarhatti Airport that is a domestic airport used to connect Shimla with New Delhi which is not in operational now. The other nearby airports are Chandigarh Airport and Delhi Airport which can be accessed easily.

By Train: Kalka Railway Station and the Chandigarh Railway Station are the two closest broad gauge railway stations from Shimla. Both the railway stations connect all the major cities in India. The famous toy train of Shimla goes between Kalka and Shimla, covering a distance of 96 kilometres in about 7 hours. Kalka in turn is the nearest rail head, which is connected to Chandigarh and Delhi by regular trains. Kalka Shatabdi, which goes from New Delhi Railway Station to Kalka Railway Station via Chandigarh.

By Bus: There are several bus services including Himachal Road Transport Corporation buses as well as private operators connecting Shimla to the major cities in North India. If you are going from Delhi, you can take an overnight air conditioned luxury bus from ISBT Kashmiri Gate. Buses go in the morning or later at night - timings can vary from season to season, you can check them online before making a reservation.

Road/Self Drive: If you are driving from Delhi, you will have to take the outer Ring Road towards GT Karnal Road, then turn right on NH 1. After you reach Ambala, leave NH 1 and move on to NH 22 towards Kalka. Keep going on same highway towards Solan and then on to Shimla. The journey usually takes about 6-7 hours depending on traffic.
