Electronic Theses and Dissertations are primary sources of research materials that originate from doctoral theses/dissertations submitted to the universities for award of Ph.D. As per UGC Notification (Minimum Standards & Procedure for Award of M.Phil./Ph.D Degree, Notification, 2009) dated 1st June, 2009, it is mandatory to submit electronic version of theses and dissertations by the researchers in universities into a national repository with an aim to facilitate open access to Indian theses and dissertations to the academic community world-wide. Universities are requested to host soft copy of the theses awarded by the universities into a central repository i.e Shodhganga. Since 2010, the number of theses has grown progressively into a central repository i.e Shodhganga.

The National conference is aimed at enhancing the quality of ETDs and deliberates on various parameters effecting the creation and maintenance of ETDs at university as well as national level. In addition to the invited talk from the national experts in the domain of ETDs, sessions will be provided to understand the workflow and process involved in creation of ETDs. The conference also addresses important issues like plagiarism, copyright, Open Access, etc. This national conference on iETD 2016 is third in the series. The first national conference was organized in JNU, New Delhi on March 22nd-23rd, 2012. The second national conference was organised at INFLIBNET Centre, Gandhinagar from 22nd-23rd January, 2015, which makes Shodhganga the largest repository of Ph.D theses in India.
